Announcing: Graduate Assistantship for 2016-17

Position:
- Music Department Graduate Assistant, Music Education

Stipend, Tuition Waiver, Benefits:
- $9,131 yearly stipend
- Tuition Waiver (including out of state tuition waiver)
- Medical insurance coverage

Expectations:
- Assist Music Education Department Chair with tasks as needed.
- Duties may include:
  - Website Design and Maintenance
  - Teaching Undergraduate Courses
  - Supervising Block/Student Teachers
- Average time commitment per week should not exceed 15 hours.

Qualifications:
- Must be admitted to an advanced degree program in the Department of Music at Boise State University and be enrolled full time during the course of the assistantship.
- BM in music from a nationally accredited institution
- Teaching Experience

Application Procedure:
- Send current resume and list of at least three references to Dr. Lori Conlon Khan (contact information below)
- Candidates must fill out a Graduate Assistantship application for the Department of Music and email it to Dr. Jeanne Belfy (contact information below). The application can be found in the prospective graduate student page at: music.boisestate.edu/education.
- Additional materials may be requested.
- Go to music.boisestate.edu/education and visit the prospective graduate student page for additional links and application/audition information.

Contacts:
Dr. Lori Conlon Khan, Director of Music Education (loriconlon@boisestate.edu)
Professor Marcellus Brown, Director of Bands (mbrown@boisestate.edu)
Dr. Jeanne Belfy, Graduate Program Coordinator and Advisor (jbelfy@boisestate.edu)